FBI nab former Campbell business man in spy plot

Police Chief John Morgan told The Campbell Press this week that James Allen Mintkenbaugh, 46, who was arrested by the Federal Bureau of Investigation and charged with selling U.S. defense secrets to the Soviet Union, at one time assisted his mother in the operation of an ice cream shop in downtown Campbell.

Mintkenbaugh's mother, Mrs. James Mintkenbaugh, resided until a week or so ago at 180 North Central Avenue, according to Chief Morgan.

Chief Morgan told The Press that the family home has been under police surveillance for the past four months, but that Mintkenbaugh has visited here only a few times in recent months. He has no local police record, Morgan stated. Mintkenbaugh and his parents operated the "M and M" Ice Cream shop at 32 E. Campbell Avenue from 1958 to 1961.

Mintkenbaugh was arrested Monday in Castro Valley along with Army Sgt. Robert Lee Johnson, 43, of Alexandria, Va. Their arrest came after the FBI filed a complaint in U. S. District Court, Alexandria, charging they conspired together and with a Russian, Vitaly Ourjoumex, and others, to obtain and deliver information on the national defense of the United States.

The complaint said both men had allegedly received various sums of money from the Soviets. Mintkenbaugh is single and was discharged from the Army in 1956. The Army said he had allegedly continued spying for the Soviets "even to the extent of taking special courses in Moscow, including training in codes, secret writing, microdots, photography and related intelligence subjects."

Jaycees stage drive for new members

Campbell Ave., at 7 a.m. The purpose of the breakfast is to interest prospective members in the 21-36 age group in participating in community activities by becoming active Jaycee members. Movies will be shown at the breakfast describing the organization's nationwide program.

MOON AT NOON

C. of C. meets at noon Thursday

"Manned Flight to the Moon" will be the topic of the speaker at the Chamber of Commerce luncheon meeting at The Prelude this Thursday, April 8.

The restaurant is located in Kirkwood Plaza, 1700 W. Campbell Avenue.

According to Oscar Sorenson, program chairman, Hart W. Aldrich, of Pacific Telephone assigned to the U. S. Air Force Satellite Test Center, in Sunnyvale, has been secured for the event.

Aldrich by actual photo slides and commentary will describe the flight pattern and other factors pertaining to future trips to the moon.

On Monday night

Former mayor to appear in appeal before Council

Former Mayor Richard Morton, a prominent San Jose attorney, is scheduled to have a starring role at the City Council meeting Monday night when he represents Pete Cristich in an appeal from a Planning Commission ruling.

Despite Morton's plea at the last Planning Commission meeting that the conditions imposed by the planners, based on staff recommendations, were unfair to Cristich the commission refused to modify them.

Cristich had asked for approval of plans for an addition to a building on property at 70 Cristich Lane. Morton contended that the dedicatory requests for streets were excessive. Morton will ask the Council to overrule the Planning Commission.

The City Council Monday night was also scheduled to act on a new city ordinance which would prohibit the conversion of residences into business or office buildings.

By a split vote (3-2) the Council had approved the preliminary draft of the ordinance. However, Councilman Ed Rogers, one of the strong advocates for such an ordinance, will be absent Monday and the Council in deference would not be adopted.

At Monday's meeting, the Council will be asked to approve the request of the West Valley Kiwanis Club to sell fireworks in the city during the Fourth of July period.

Planners study building plans

Approval of plans for seven new buildings featured the Planning Commission meeting last night. The Planners met after press time.

The applications included a proposed coin-operated car wash in the Campbell Center (Latimer at Winchester), service station at 770 W. Hamilton, an office building at 1620 La Pradera, apartments on Budd Ave., and three warehouses in the industrial area.

Also on the agenda was the revised application for a variance of Fred Schallich for a commercial building at San Tomas and Campbell.

Local group seeks new industries for city

With the objective to explore all possible methods to entice commercial and industrial growth into Campbell, a new committee, composed of real estate and industrial leaders, has been appointed by the directors of the Campbell Chamber of Commerce.

Richard Hardy, vice-president of the C. of C. and vice-president of Ainsley Corporation, is chairman of the group.

Holly Vollenweider, a leading real estate agent in the county, is vice-president of the committee and Mrs. Connie Regas, well known local real estate agent, is secretary.

Other committee members include, Les Harmon, Clair Wilson, Mitchell Raskin, all active in real estate and development circles and Ron Tharp, personnel manager of IBM and president of the Campbell Chamber of Commerce.

CITY OF MADERO

OFF TO MEXICO--Fire Chief George Maxwell (center) and Fire Captain Jerry P. Gomes (right) became "visiting firemen" for this week when they left by plane for Ciudad Madero where they will be guests of the fire department of that Mexican city on the Gulf of Mexico.

The Madero fire department has been "adopted" by the Campbell Firefighters Association. Thousands of dollars worth of equipment has been shipped to the Mexican city under the direction of the local association and the city south of the border is naturally appreciative of this good neighbor gesture.

The good-will trip is being financed largely by the Firefighters Association with the two local fire officials digging into their pockets for the balance. A full program of entertainment is scheduled for Maxwell and Gomes who will return next Tuesday.

INCOME TAX TIME is never a very joyous period. This year especially it has a special significance, in a morbid sort of way, for many individuals.

Because the complicated computing formulas somehow went awry somewhere up and down the line, withholding deductions in many cases have come up short.

Instead of rebates there will be digging in the jeans to meet the deficiencies which have resulted.

We note that banks and other money-storage joints have recognized this unenviable predicament in which many of us have found ourselves.

The date April 15 has been circled on the calendar. Other not so subtle suggestions have been used by money-lending concerns to invite the taxpayer to come in and browse before the deadline.

But it is not a pleasant task (for the taxpayer that is), to shell out dough for taxes, especially when it comes as sort of an unexpected shock as has been the case for many this year.

But groaning is about the only satisfaction a taxpayer has. He will pay. There is no other choice. Even LBJ had to dig.

THIS YEAR, a news release from the Internal Revenue Service reported some time ago, that the San Jose IRS offices were set up to allow taxpayers in the area to call in and get answers to some of the questions that were bound to come up.

We reported in this column the difficulty we encountered when we attempted to take advantage of this added service.

It was a frustrating experience trying to get through to the IRS office. The telephone lines apparently were so overloaded that the busy signal was the rule and not the exception. Apparently there were many others also with questions.

We actually did finally get through but admittedly it was a frustrating experience.

We have learned that others also went through the same exasperating experience. Some of the callers were accountants whose need for information was much more pressing.

One tax consultant who had been thwarted by the busy signal for several hours, finally did something about it.

He called Congressman Charles Gubser. Apparently Charlie put in a few words where it did the most good.

Hank Heisnner, a tax consultant of Action Associates, informed us this week that he had learned that the San Francisco IRS office had announced that additional lines

Editorial

Questions and answers

We have endorsed the $17.8 million junior college bond issue which is on your ballot on April 20 because we sincerely feel that it makes good common sense to finance the needed junior college in this manner.

There have been many anguished outcrys from the opposition, mostly stemming from the Saratoga area, the site of the first permanent college.

The opposition has been yelling "extravagence" because of the size of the bond issue. They claim that there are frills galore planned for the new campus. They must have a crystal ball that we don't seem to find, for, as far as we know, there have been no DEFINITE plans submitted for the new college.

The opposition to the bond issue stems from the same camp that fought the formation of the district originally and the first bond issue. They have also fought against having the college in Saratoga.

We think the opposition is stooping to unfair tactics when they make allegations that have no bearing on the facts at hand.

In last week's editorial we presented a number of questions and answers pertaining to the bond issue.

The questions included the methods of financing that were available, how much money is needed, why there will be no increase in taxes and why it is urgent to approve the bonds now.

Here are some more pertinent questions and their answers:

Q. WHAT IS THE PURPOSE OF A JUNIOR COLLEGE?

A. Primarily the junior college purpose is:

1. To provide regular academic and professional studies which will meet transfer standards of any college or university, thus allowing a student to complete lower division requirements at home.
2. To provide occupation-vocational programs for students who plan to terminate formal studies after two years or less with specialized trade and technical training.
3. To provide broad general education courses.
4. To provide continuing education for adults.

Q. IF THE BOND PROPOSAL IS NOT APPROVED AT THE SCHOOL ELECTION APRIL 20, 1965, WILL OUR TAXES INCREASE?

A. It is very likely, because without adequate facilities the dollar drain to other junior college facilities to help them buy their buildings will continue. This is because many students, particularly in some of the vocational fields, who cannot be accommodated on the temporary Campbell campus must go elsewhere. The tuition payment for these students, when added to the normal expenses of operation plus the all important consideration for land acquisition and construction at constantly increasing prices, will undoubtedly result in a higher junior college tax rate. For example, the budgeted land costs have increased by at least $100,000 and estimated construction costs by $422,000, a total of more than one half million dollars, since the previous bond election in March, 1964.

Q. CAN THE DISTRICT OPERATE THE NEW COLLEGE WITHOUT INCREASING TAXES?

A. Yes it can. This year its assessed valuation is in excess of our half billion dollars. The State legislature has established a financial support program for junior colleges to assure the availability of funds amounting to at least $600.00 per year for the education of each full-time equivalent student (a.d.a.). To this amount both the State and the district contribute, dependent upon the wealth of the district. If the assessed wealth of the district is above $180,000 per unit of a.d.a., the State will contribute no more than basic aid of $125.00 toward the $600.00. If the assessed wealth of the district is less than $180,000 per unit of a.d.a. the State will contribute more, dependent inversely upon the district's wealth. In the school year 1963-64 the assessed wealth of the district per full-time student equivalent was $179,177; during the current school year it amounts to $182,536. There are sixty-five junior colleges in California, many of them well established and in operation for decades. Forty-five of these districts in 1963-64 had an assessable wealth per student below that of West Valley. Among these were Oakland, Long Beach, Pasadena, Sacramento, Foothill, and San Jose.

Q. WHAT DOES THE TAX RATE FOR THE COLLEGE COST THE AVERAGE HOUSE OWNER?

A. Assuming that the assessable wealth of the average homeowner is $5,000 he is now paying and will continue to pay upon the passage of the bond, $27.00 per year. (5,000 x .0054 = $27.00)

Q. WHAT VOTE IS NEEDED FOR APPROVAL?

A. A two-thirds' majority of those voting. In other words, two "yes" votes are needed for every "no" vote to authorize issuance of the bonds. Be sure to vote Tuesday, April 20, and vote YES.

will now be available into the San Jose office until the April 15 tax deadline.

Now if we could only think of a good question to ask, other, of course, than the big one of where are we going to get the dough.

SIGNS OF SAN JOSE council candidates within the city limits of Campbell have really upset us, as those of you who read this column can testify.

We see no earthly reason that such signs should be allowed. The people of Campbell can't vote for the guys, even if they wanted to.

But apparently the way the city sign ordinance reads such signs are allowed, provided a proper permit is taken out. So, if a San Jose candidate wants to spend the dough and spread his signs around in other cities, he can do it, no matter how stupid it sounds.

Since we have been sounding off about this ridiculous sign bit, we have gained a number of allies.

One of our callers pointed out another bad feature of the signs which had particularly incensed us, the ones on Bascom near McBain. They are traffic hazards because of where they were located. They block the view.

And for the record, we had nothing to do with one of those signs falling down after the rainstorm. But we admit we did not stop to raise it again.

Our tirade on such signs has not done much good this year, for the San Jose election will be next week. And there are still signs around. Much to our disgust.

However, the council has directed the city staff to study the sign ordinance. Maybe it can be modified to eliminate political signs within the city of candidates that citizens of Campbell can't vote for.

We are all for that. Or did you guess?

College board buys property

The West Valley Joint Junior College District trustees have approved an agreement to purchase the first portion of its projected campus site at the southeast corner of Fruitvale and Allendale Avenues in Saratoga.

The parcel, slightly more than one acre and containing a three bedroom dwelling, will bring the owners, Karl and Orpha Nerell of Saratoga, the sum of $40,000 which Superintendent-President Wallace W. Hall said was "within the valuation" set by professional appraisers retained by the district.

It is one of 14 parcels of a 143-acre tract which the district has sought to acquire through condemnation proceedings and is located on the extreme southern tip of the tract. A warrant to pay the sum also was approved.

The trustees approved "as a matter of policy" a proposed seat fee schedule by San Jose City College whereby the West Valley district next year would pay $150 per student (based on average daily attendance) for the use of SJCC facilities by the West Valley students. Although he approved the proposal, Trustee Jack Armstrong publicly protested circumstances which he said were causing the West Valley district delays in getting its own facilities. Said Armstrong:

"I do hope that those misinformed minorities who are complaining about extravagance and waste can see how wasteful and extravagant their actions are to this district. By undermining our efforts to achieve a successful bond election they not only are costing us more year by year in increased site and construction costs, but they also are ruining our bargaining position with other junior colleges. In our first year the seat fee was $50. This year it is $115. Next year it will be $150. I think it is about time for some vocal minorities to assume a little responsibility of citizenship."

Trustee Chairman Bruce F. Allen said the increasing charges show "the imperative need that this district handle its own students one way or another." "It's about time we stopped paying our taxes just to finance the building programs of the other districts," he said.

The trustees accepted a traffic study made by the engineering firm of Wilbur Smith Associates of San Francisco and paid for jointly by the district and the City of Saratoga. A brief summary of the major findings and recommendations was presented by Mitchell Baird of the survey firm, followed by questions from both trustees and interested persons in the audience.

FIRST PARCEL--Karl Nerell of Saratoga, seated, and Mrs. Nerell signed an agreement to convey their one-acre plus property to the junior college district as James Ersted, deputy county counsel, and president of the college, Wallace W. Hall, look on.

The property contains a three-bedroom dwelling and will be sold for $40,000 which Dr. Hall said was "within the appraised valuation." The site is one of 14 parcels in a 143-acre tract which the district is purchasing in the southeast corner of Fruitvale and Allendale Avenues.

☆ Here's $985,000 for the Campbell School District ☆

Because new school facilities were needed, you voted to authorize your school district to issue bonds. Bank of America and its associated investment dealers purchased these bonds to give your district the money it needs.

Interest rates on the bonds were decided by competitive bidding—a procedure required by law to obtain the lowest average interest rate for the taxpayer under current bond market conditions. Interest rates also reflect the credit rating of your district.

We, at Bank of America, bid on virtually all municipal bonds issued in the State—because we have confidence in the future of California and districts like yours.

One thing that gives us confidence is that you and your neighbors wisely recognize the demonstrated truth: good schools benefit all citizens—those with and without children alike. The quality of a community parallels the quality of its schools. This is reflected in property values through the years.

Campbell Jaycees plan to produce annual Miss Campbell Pageant

Winner to have chance at Miss America title

On May 8, a beautiful and talented girl, perhaps with a few stars in her eyes, will bow her head slightly and receive the crown of Miss Campbell.

And that will only be the first step along a path that will lead her to Santa Cruz, a Miss California title, and perhaps on to Atlantic City to be crowned Miss America and be richly rewarded for her talent and beauty. Business firms from the area will be sponsoring girls in the local pageant, which has the sanction of the national Miss America Pageant organization.

The Campbell Jaycees are producing the pageant and have scheduled the final competition for May 8, 1965. The semi-finals are scheduled for April 24, when the ten finalists will be selected from the more than 25 girls who are expected to enter the competition. Both the semi-finals and the finals will be held at West Valley Jr. College. Jaycee President Jim Pluth outlined the following requirements:

Girls must be single, not previously married, eighteen years old by September 1, 1965, and not over 28 years old by then.

Pluth went on to say, "Our pageant is the first, and we hope there will be many to follow, in the Campbell area. It presents the opportunity for one of our very own local girls to become Miss America. In addition, there will be many awards for the local queen. The pageant gives a young lady every chance to build for herself a sound and successful future. We encourage all interested girls to enter." For entry forms or more information, contact Ken Roberts of the Campbell Jaycees at 379-3043.

The Miss America pageant and its local preliminaries such as the Miss Campbell contest began in 1921 in Atlantic City, and except for a few years during the depression and World War II, has been growing steadily ever since. Today, for instance, more than $500,000 in scholarships are awarded to girls participating in the 3500 local, state and national pageants.

1963--Judith Long, a former Blackford High School student, was crowned Miss Campbell in 1963. Her princesses were Lynda Faulkner (right) and Susan Kolling (left).

Anthony Vitale

Anthony Vitale, 43, of 840 W. Parr Avenue, died April 3 in a Los Gatos Hospital. He was a long time area resident and an army veteran who received the Bronze Star for heroic action in Italy during World War II.

His death was attributed to Leukemia. A native of Wisconsin, Vitale had lived in the county for 36 years. He was a heavy equipment operator for Certain-Teed Products Co.

During World War II, Vitale, then a private first class, was credited with rescuing several men trapped in the wreckage of a building under intense German artillery fire.

He was the husband of Emily Vitale; father of Jacalyn Vitale of Campbell; son of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Vitale of Campbell; brother of Mrs. Louie (Nancy) Sciotino of San Jose; Mrs. Fred (Rose) Brice of Wisconsin and Miss Fanny Vitale of Campbell.

Services were held from Lima-Salmon-Erickson Cathedral Chapel, followed by Requiem Mass at St. Lucy's Church. Interment was in Santa Clara Catholic Cemetery.

Fair planned for teenagers

With the Easter Vacation approaching, many teen-agers are wondering what they can do for excitement and fun. They needn't look any further for entertainment as their prayers have been answered.

What item seems to be so stimulating and interesting? The answer is the 1965 Teen-Age Fair. This event is being held at the San Mateo County Fairgrounds, San Mateo, during Easter vacation (April 9-April 18).

Some of the events include dancing around the clock to bands, watching surfing movies, attending fashion shows, a Custom Car Caravan, a battle of the bands, dance contests, harmony hootenanny, D. J. Contest, sky dives, and Judo-Karate shows. Various free prizes will also be given away.

Favorite recipes from our Campbell readers:

Thrill the little ones in your family with an Easter Bunny cake this year. All it takes is a white cake mix, food coloring, coconut, a creamy frosting, and a little imagination.

Bake cake in large square pan. Draw your bunny on a piece of paper before you start cutting.

Place cake on cookie sheet or cutting board. Cut a round face, two long ears, and a square body. Frost with a white or tinted icing, and cover with coconut. Use jelly beans to make his eyes and mouth. You can probably elaborate on this a little with your own ideas.

You can use the same idea and make cupcakes with "bunny faces". All of these ideas are inexpensive, but do so much to add to the festivities of the holiday.

Our Town

By Grace Hebard

One of Campbell High School's most beloved teachers, COACH LEONARD SCROGGINS will realize a dream of many years, when he takes his family to Europe this summer for a three month's vacation. Scroggins is best known at the High School as a former coach of the swim team, which produced some great swimmers including Steve Skold, a national champion in 1957...

The Scroggins threesome (Dad, Mom and daughter, Kim) will leave as soon as school is out. Brother Mike can't go with them as he is tied up coaching a swim team at San Jose State this summer. They will fly over and purchase a Volkswagon to tour the country. They have their itinerary all worked out. A good portion of their time will be spent in Norway where they will meet relatives for the first time. Everyone wishes them a wonderful trip.

EASTER VACATION means work for an industrious group of high school seniors from Trinity Presbyterian Church who will join an Easter Week Work Camp at Nipomo and Pismo Beach April 10 through 15. The money raised by this group will be used for materials to paint the sanctuary, inside and out, at the Nipomo Presbyterian Church, and to expand facilities at Pismo Beach and to organize a day camp for children. Youngsters like this deserve a pat on the back..

Letters to the Editor

MISLEADING

Editor
The Campbell Press
Campbell, Calif.

Dear Sir:

A privileged few people in Saratoga are doing their best to mislead the people into thinking that the West Valley District will be dissolved and the campus will not be constructed in Saratoga if they defeat the bonds on April 20. Nothing could be further from the truth. Actually, neither Foothill or San Jose City College want to take on any additional territory, and the West Valley district is a legally-created entity by vote of the people.

The West Valley trustees have actually purchased the first portion of the Saratoga site and paid for it. So there is no chance, bonds or no bonds, that the campus will not be there.

The only thing the objectors will accomplish with their questionable methods will be to raise our taxes.

Sincerely,
"Mac" Martinez
1195 Holmes
Campbell

REAL REASON

Dear Editor:

By the narrow margin of six to four, the board of the Santa Clara County Taxpayers' Association voted to oppose the West Valley Junior College bonds. This group a year ago voted to support the bond issue. The real and only reason for their present opposition is the selection of the Fruitvale Avenue site in Saratoga.

This small group of selfish men posing as friends of the taxpayer would force higher taxes and a less desirable college program on the people of this district.

This group claims to have the wisdom to oversee, secondguess, and outsmart every city council and district board on budgets and bonds. Actually, they are motivated by personal, political reasons that have nothing to do with taxes, finance, or the public interest.

BRUCE F. ALLEN

FLUORIDATION

Dear Mr. Vierhus:

I realize now that I should have "hollered" about this a long time ago, but the inclusion of a ballot in our San Jose Water Works bill and the upcoming Sunnyvale Fluoridation measure have brought me to the grim realization that serious consideration is being given to fluoridating our water supply--(those of us Campbell residents who are served by San Jose Water Works, rather than Campbell Water Co.)

I really am totally unable to see ANY advantages in fluoridation of the water. And I highly resent having to pay for fluoridating the teeth of the children down the block--assuming that they drink enough water to benefit!! Why haven't their parents taken care of that themselves?? My children have been taking fluoride tablets daily for several years--a measured reliable dose, prescribed by their dentist.

And who is foolish enough to think that the underprivileged child is REALLY going to benefit? The greatest benefit we could give him is to improve his TOTAL surroundings, beginning with diet and a toothbrush, if it's his teeth we're worried about. Are we getting to be a society so crippled that we can't take ANY responsibility for our own well-being? No reflection on the dairy industry, but I wonder if the next step will be to automatically deliver to each residence enough milk to supply the "recommended daily intake"--and even that would give you the option of pouring it down the drain if you didn't want it!! I am sure that the people who are promoting fluoridation sincerely want to help their fellow man and merely chose the wrong issue.

I hope others wake up and offer protest before we find it is too late.

Sincerely,
Sally Howe
45 W. Budd Ave.

IN CONCERT HERE--Nelson and Neal, popular Duo-Pianists, are pictured with their children at their home in Paris, Tennessee. They will be presented in concert at West Valley College, Saturday night, April 10. Curtain time is 8:15 p.m.

Husband and wife team to present piano concert

Nelson and Neal, one of America's most beloved two-piano teams, will be presented in concert by the Los Gatos Community Concert Association Saturday evening, April 10 at 8:15 o'clock in the Auditorium of the West Valley College, in Campbell.

Nelson and Neal have played more concerts than any other two-piano team in the world in the last ten years, and over half of their itinerary is devoted to return engagements. Their performance here is eagerly anticipated.

Allison Nelson is a native of Australia, and Harry Neal is from Tennessee. The young couple met and married in Philadelphia where both were studying at the famed Curtis Institute of Music.

They travel in a specially designed bus which carries complete living facilities, as well as their two specially-matched pianos.

Almost every Nelson and Neal orchestral performance or recital include an interesting product of their musical research. In the last two years their programs have included a startling array of North American and Twentieth Century premieres of lost or forgotten works by such composers as Schubert, Mendelssohn, Liszt and Brahms. The Campbell recital promises to be a most satisfying and interesting musical experience.

Teachers oppose unification

The Cambrian Faculty Association adopted a resolution at its March meeting opposing the proposed plan for the unification of the Campbell High School District.

The resolution states, in part, "In spite of a possible salary increase if the current plan should be approved, we believe that a district of such unwieldy proportions would: 1. Reduce communication between parents and the administration. 2. Abolish a strong community spirit and identity. 3. Impair the present high teacher morale.

West Valley College holds open house Thursday night

An "Open House", whose purpose is to acquaint parents of both West Valley College and high school students with the operation of the college, has been scheduled for Thursday evening, April 8. Although designed primarily for those two groups, the affair also is open to the general public, according to Wallace W. Hall, president. Doors open at 7:30 p.m.

Many classrooms and facilities will be open and operating, Dr. Hall said. Special exhibits such as the language, typing, electronics and home economics laboratories will be offered.

A 10-minute sound-color motion picture will be shown continuously. Arnold Edman, dean of guidance and counseling, will conduct model "orientation sessions" similar to those he has presented during the past several weeks at all the high schools in the district.

A newly-printed admissions folder, explaining entrance requirements and course offerings, will be distributed.

Campbell distriot applies for matching federal funds

Campbell Union School District board of trustees approved a new NDEA (National Defense Education Act) application for matching funds to help support three kinds of instruction during the next school year.

At the last board meeting (March 25) trustees approved a total NDEA application of $32,643, with the district to provide one half, or $16,323.

This money will pay for materials and equipment for foreign language instruction for grades 6, 7 and 8; for new math in grades 3, 4, 5, 6 and 8; and for oral English for kindergarten, and first and second grades.

The NDEA funds are made available to school districts by the federal government to stimulate and promote better education programs. These funds will double what the district would be able to do with strictly its own funds. Equipment purchased will include projectors, tape recorders, television sets, and materials such as slides, films and filmstrips for use with this equipment. School distribution systems provided by NDEA funds will make programs broadcast by television Channel 9 and by Santa Clara County's Channel 54 more widely available throughout the district schools.

In oral English, for instance, television programs received in the classrooms will not be a whole program of instruction, but a taking off point for the teachers. The TV programs will stimulate the teachers to follow through and give them patterns to follow, fresh ideas, and examples of ways they can work out practice in oral interpretation themselves with their pupils and carry on from the TV program with other classroom activities. The objective is to improve the course content and enrich it.

Kindergarten registration at Moreland

Moreland School District is now accepting registrations from the parents of children who will be eligible for kindergarten entry in the school year beginning September 1965. Registration will take place in the individual schools in the Moreland School District. While it would be helpful if registrations were to take place in the school the child will attend in the Fall, children may be registered at any of the Moreland Schools and the papers will be transferred to the appropriate school.

California School Law requires that children must be four years and nine months on the first of September before they may enter Kindergarten. This means that they will have birthdates on or before December 2, 1960. In this, there is no leeway. The State Law is very specific and requires verification of that birthdate be made to the school officials by means of a Birth Certificate, Certificate of Birth Registration, a Baptismal Certificate or other official document.

Del Mar Sports

by Tom Jacob

Del Mar's varsity baseball team got off to a great start in their league season as they downed their first opponents on 6-1, and 7-0 scores.

In the league opener, the Dons met Camden on March 30, and it was a 5-run eighth inning rally that gave them the 6-1 win. Guy Martin and Tony Condensa combined for a one-hit performance, with Rhett Thompson doing the hitting.

The second game of the season was an easy win over Saratoga on April 1. Rick Peryam went the distance for the Dons to notch a shut-out. Del Mar got started quickly in the first inning when they got two runs on Thompson's double, as the third baseman continued his superstar hitting. Sophomore centerfielder Dick Whitman, whose father is a former major leaguer, also had a fine day at the plate.

The Dons' track team tested a very strong Blackford team on March 26, but came out on the short end of a 70-61 score. Steve Bragg was a double winner for the Dons in the broad-jump and triple-jump, with Tom Gardner, Pete Fehler, Wayne Howard, and Ed Collins also gaining victories.

Todd Hayes, Glenn Schank, and Dave Shilling racked up the West Valley's best times in the 100 butterfly, back stroke, and breast stroke, but it wasn't enough to stop the Blackford swimmers, as the Braves defeated the Dons 65-30, on March 26.

In the coming week, the Dons' track and swimming teams will battle Campbell on April 9, the track at home and the swimming at Campbell. The baseballers take on Westmont on April 8, and then begin competition in the annual Lions Club Tournament on April PROMOTED--Alleen F. Cowdery, who has served in the Campbell office of Wells Fargo Bank for 16 years, has been promoted to assistant operations officer at the bank, according to Joaquin (Jack) Payne, vice-president and manager.

Del Mar Dateline

by
Rosalie Ann Castello

Juniors at Del Mar tried something new this year. It was wearing very casual clothes to their Junior Class Party which was held on April 2 from 7:30 to 11:00. The Juniors participated in pie eating and dance contests and a hootenanny. They also chose their personality queen. There were three contestants, Barbara White, Andrea Erickson and Mikey Gallagher. Each contestant presented some talent through skits, singing and dancing. Then each of them answered questions asked by Ken Wallace, junior class counselor.

Sissyminakas, the Senior Girls Service Club, has started planning their Easter project. On April 10, the girls will go to a children's shelter located on Story Road and present an Entertainment. The girls are busy making gifts to give the children also. The senior girls have recently donated $50 to the Grandpa Long Scholarship.

The third Clean Campus Contest came to an end March 26. Again the "mighty" seniors showed their superiority and came in first for the third straight time receiving 50 spirit points and $15 for their Senior Sneak Day. The contest began on March 1. The freshmen had the first week to keep the campus clean, then the sophomores, juniors and seniors had their turn.

A TAX INCREASE OR BONDS?

It's your decision to make

Acquisition of the Saratoga site has already begun. West Valley college WILL BE LOCATED THERE. You must decide whether it's paid for from bond proceeds or from current district income, If from current income, count on a CERTAIN higher tax rate.

- IF YOU WANT to keep your junior college taxes at their present level...
- IF YOU WANT to provide deserved educational advantages to your most precious resource, your children...
- IF YOU WANT to stop the dollar drain to other districts...
- IF YOU WANT to build a functionally-planned, attractive campus that is less expensive than Foothill, San Mateo and even the statewide average junior college construction cost...
- IF YOU WANT to finish the job which a majority of those voting have twice endorsed...
- IF YOU WANT to meet the responsibilities of the future...

VOTE YES APRIL 20 FOR WEST VALLEY COLLEGE BONDS

Campbell Center stores provide multi-services for shoppers

Campbell Drugs 'dresses up' for Easter season

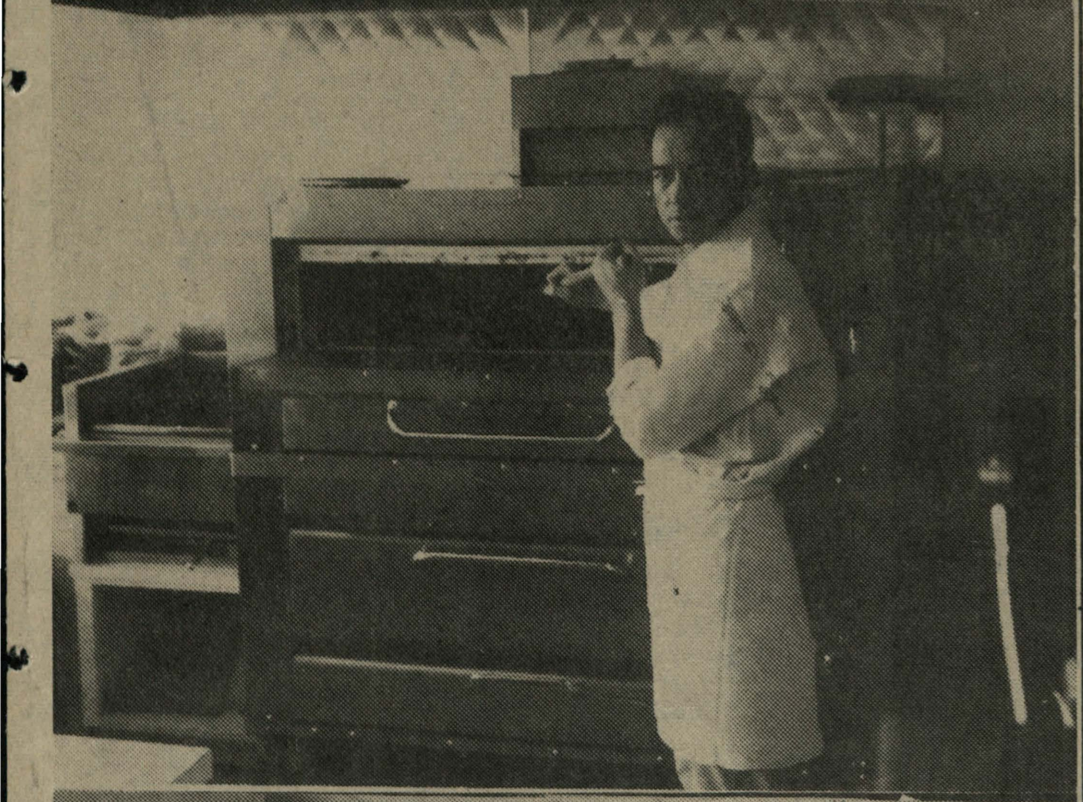
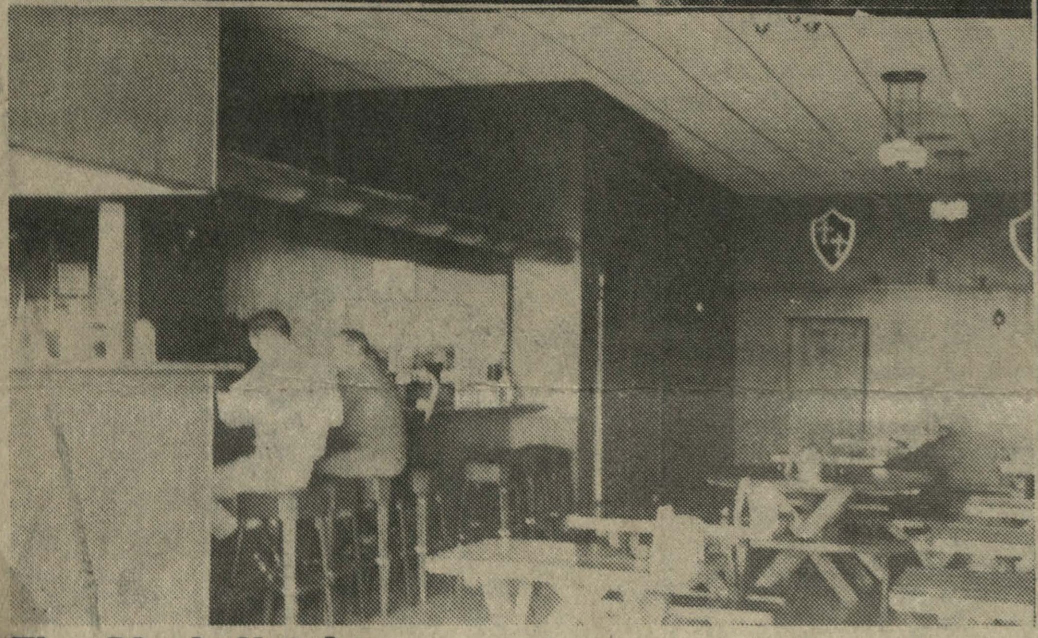
One of the unique features is the "Easter Candy Lane" and the island of "Easter Gifts".

The photo on the left shows the special display of "Easter Baskets for Men and Women" and the multitude of Easter gifts topped, of course, by the huge bunny.

All the stores in the Campbell Center are cooperating in the annual Easter Egg hunt which will be held at the shopping center, Winchester Blvd. at Latimer, on Saturday, April 7, at 2 p.m.

The Campbell Center has also scheduled a number of other special events during the year.





The Black Knight

Campbell's own pizza parlor and pub

One of the newest businesses in the Campbell Center is The Black Knight, an attractive pizza parlor which opened recently and is proving to be a popular addition to the shopping center located at Winchester Blvd. and Latimer.

The lower photo shows the interior with the tables for customers and the attractive rustic design of the room. Take-out orders are also a specialty.

The Black Knight is holding its official grand opening this weekend starting on Thursday and extending through Saturday, April 8-9-10. Free soda pop will be offered youngsters during the grand opening event.

Committee chairman for yes vote for bonds blasts critics

Opponents of the West Valley College bond election to be held on April 20 "want to burn down the barn to kill the rats," according to Vernon R. Rutlen of Saratoga, chairman of the citizen's committee for a yes vote.

"They talk continually about the crowds of students to come, of our alleged inability to finance future campuses--all of which we can disprove. But they have no cure for their fictional situation other than to defeat the April 20 bond issue," Rutlen said. "This sounds to me like burning down the barn to kill the rats, or more familiarly, cutting off one's nose to spite one's face."

"If this bond issue fails, it is almost a certainty that junior college taxes will go up," Rutlen continued. "If they pass, it is just as certain that they will not increase. It's as simple as that. Fiscal experts have assured us that the income from the district is more than enough to retire the bonds. If we don't get the bond money, taxes will have to be raised to complete purchase of the site and build the campus out of current district income."

Rutlen pointed to what he called "another of the delusions of the opposition."

"They contend that defeat of the bonds will force the trustees to abandon plans for building a campus at Fruitvale and Allendale Avenues in Saratoga," he said. "Nothing could be further from the truth. There is nearly half a million dollars in this year's budget for site acquisition. The trustees have seen their way clear to purchase the site regardless of the outcome of the bond election, and they have started legal proceedings to purchase it.

Board opposes unifioation but not on a more reasonable base

Here is the text of the resolution recently adopted by the board of trustees of the Campbell Union School District opposing unification of a single district of the Campbell Union High School District:

WHEREAS it was the opinion of the professional study group as well as the citizens' committee study groups that population within the bounds of Campbell Union High School District in the near future will be substantially larger than could be recommended as an optimum-sized unified district; and WHEREAS there has been no evidence to support the proposition that a district so formed would offer savings to the taxpayer; and WHEREAS there has been no evidence to support the proposition that a district so formed would offer any benefits to the student; and

WHEREAS there has been no evidence to support the proposition that a district so formed could offer conditions that would attract the most capable professional staff; and WHEREAS it is not in the best interest of the parents, the taxpayers, or the district employees to make more remote those agencies which establish educational policy and administer tax revenues;

Therefore be it resolved that the Board of Trustees of Campbell Union School District, although not opposed to unification on reasonable bases, be opposed to unification of a single district within the bounds of of the Campbell Union High School District.

ON CAPITOL HILL

with "Charlie" Gubser

In a past issue of ON CAPITOL HILL dealing with the high incidence of crime in Washington, D. C., I told of the knifing in broad daylight of a Capitol Hill secretary as she prayed in church one block from the U. S. Capitol. I'm sorry to say that since then the situation has become even worse!

Until June 1957 the crime rate in the District of Columbia had decreased for five consecutive years. In that month the Supreme Court rendered a decision in the case of Mallory vs. the U. S. and the rate skyrocketed upward as the number of D. C. felony cases increased from 15,793 to 30,660 in 1964. But then with this increase the percentage of convictions and the number of inmates in the D. C. prison at Lorton has dropped by almost 20%. In seven years the volume of crime in the District has increased 100%--far above the national rate.

Mallory, a suspected rapist, was apprehended one day about 2:00 P. M. At 8:00 P. M. he confessed and repeated his confession at 10:00 P. M. At midnight he was confronted by his victim and again repeated his confession. He was found guilty of rape and the case was appealed to the Supreme Court. On June 24, 1957, the Court held that Mallory's three confessions were made before he had been arraigned before a U. S. Commissioner and advised of his rights. His confession, therefore, could not be admitted as evidence.

The Mallory decision had a great effect upon the crime rate in the District of Columbia. Additionally, it started a chain reaction of Court decisions across the nation which has seriously hindered law enforcement officials in their efforts to protect the vast number of citizens who are law abiding. In the famous Killough case, a man who had strangled his wife, and buried her body in a pile of rubbish, confessed five days later. This confession was disallowed on the basis of the rule in the Mallory decision. But legal second and third confessions were thrown out on grounds that they were related to the first confession which had been illegally obtained. So after two juries had convicted him and after he had confessed three times Mr. Killough was set free.

After a Sacramento supermarket robbery police officers mistakenly stopped what they thought was the getaway car. They found a large quantity of illegal drugs and made an arrest. The defendants were set free because the Court said they were the victims of illegal search and seizure. In another case police found a man suffering from an overdose of Heroin who identified the "pusher" who supplied him. The officers found the "pusher" and his stock of Heroin. But the arrest was set aside on the grounds that the search was illegal.

It used to be that the Courts strived for a happy medium between protecting the rights of individuals and protecting society at large, but now they are emphasizing only individual rights. Today the law breaker has the advantage and society is his victim.

A new national attitude is developing which tolerates rabble-rousing with no constructive purpose and justifies it as an individual right. Beatniks in leotards openly preach rebellion and urge students to disobey when they disagree. They disrupt a well ordered society by defying law and the officials responsible for enforcing it.

This business has gone too far. Congress should pass legislation which binds the Courts to protect decent citizens who prefer law and order to anarchy.

SOCIAL SECURITY
Questions and Answers

U. S. DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH, EDUCATION, AND WELFARE
SOCIAL SECURITY ADMINISTRATION

Gladstone A. Boquist

Q. Last month I reported to the Social Security Administration that I was earning over $100 a month and expected to earn $1500 this year. I get social security retirement payments. I recently got a raise and find I will earn $2000 this year. When should I notify social security about my higher income?

A. Immediately. The number of social security checks you should get this year depends on the total amount you will earn. If you don't notify the Social Security Administration about your raise, you'll get more checks than you should. These checks would have to be returned, or refunded if they have been cashed and spent.

Q. I am over 65 and have decided to quit farming. I planned on renting out my land, but have an offer to sell the land that is far too attractive to refuse. Would the sale of the land prevent me from receiving social security checks?

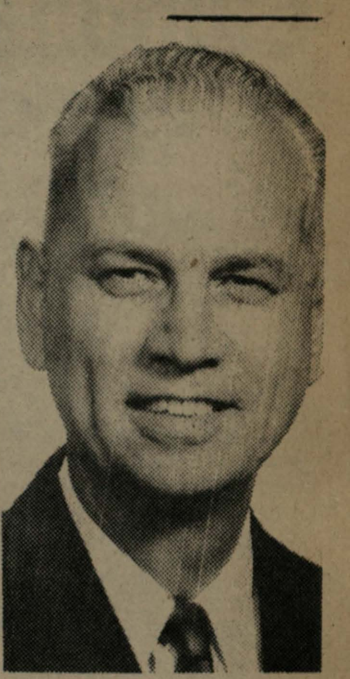
A. No. Income from the sale of your farm is not considered in figuring any social security benefits payable.

Q. You often suggest to your inquirers that they get in touch with the social security office before retiring. I'm still not too clear on the advantages of doing this. Would you explain again, please?

A. The most important reason for calling early at the social security office is to obtain definite information about what you can expect from social security. This information will have a bearing on your planning--that is: when you may retire - at 62, 65 or later; also, what steps you might take in advance to assure yourself of a more adequate income - such as the purchase of annuities or arranging for a part-time job, completion of time payments while still working, etc. Also, if you are about to retire, you may make application for social security benefits as much as 3 months ahead of time, so your checks will start promptly.

Q. I am 67 years of age and have been receiving social security checks for two years. I am not working, but recently cashed in an insurance policy and received $5,000. Should I stop my social security checks because of this income?

A. No. Insurance annuities or dividends are not included as earned income for social security purposes. For detailed information about the types of income that are reportable, ask your local Social Security Office for Booklet No. 23, "If You Work While You Get Social Security Payments".



LECTURER--Martin N. Heafer will be the speaker at a free public lecture sponsored by the First Church of Christ, Scientist, of Campbell, on Sunday, April 11, at 3 p.m. at the Congregational Church, 400 W. Campbell Ave. "The Great Awakener" is the title of the lecture which will explore the element of "spiritual perception and its relation to Christianity." There will be ample parking at the church and child care will be provided.

If you haven't figured out your income tax yet, do it. You may owe more than you think. But don't blame yourself. This year is different—because of adjustments in the withholding rates. And if it turns out that you do owe more than you expected (most people will), just get a personal loan from any Wells Fargo Bank. It's easy to arrange, easy to repay. And a great way to take the worry out of any other tax problems that crop up in April. Come on in. We'll be glad to help.

Campbell history reveals community changes

By Frances Clever

The name Orchard City was given Campbell from the many prune and apricot orchards then surrounding the town, now torn out to make room for subdivisions and apartment houses.

The canning industry was started by J.C. Ainsley who constructed a cannery at Campbell and Harrison Avenues. Recently the Campbell City Street department, as part of the street improvement program, started digging around the roots of the huge live oak trees which once marked the front office of the Ainsley plant, later known as the Hunt canning plant. The mammouth structure was removed in the last decade.

One of the historical dates in the Campbell calendar was the planting of the redwood tree by President Theodore Roosevelt in 1903. The year 1964 marked the removal of the tree at the corner of Winchester and Campbell Avenues to make way for the street widening program necessitated by the ever-growing population of Campbell. The tree stump was replanted in Vasona Park and is now sending forth new green shoots.

One of the big events in early Campbell history was the erection of the IOOF hall in 1902, corner of Campbell and First Streets. This year saw the old building torn down, and all that remains is a cornice preserved in the Campbell Museum.

The year 1964 saw the old Campbell Elementary School rejuvenated and over 1000 students poured through its hall seeking new knowledge, and the sign over the entrance proclaimed that this was now the West Valley College.

More changes are contemplated in our future and only time will tell what old landmarks will fall to make room for newer ideas and bigger buildings to serve the needs of the over 23,000 people now calling Campbell their home. Our pioneer forefathers made their way to this fertile valley in covered wagons--and their great-grandsons take off for outer space in vehicles made by the skilled hands of todays residents

Committees start final plan for Old Settlers celebration

Robert Culp, coordinator for the May 13-16 73rd annual Old Settlers' Celebration sponsored by the Campbell Chamber of Commerce, announced other important committee members had been named to expidite the many affairs connected with putting on a successful community celebration.

Dick Domain, in charge of the street decoration has announced that new banners spelling out "Welcome Old Settlers" would be placed at both ends of the main thoroughfare.

Financial affairs will be chairmaned by W. O. Oltman and fire control by Fire Marshall Eugene Borden.

The entire event will be officially kicked-off on Thursday, May 13 at the Chamber of Commerce luncheon held at the Villa Felice.

Oscar Sorenson, chairman, announced that at this time all attending members would be in Western garb.

During the week-long event it is hoped that all Campbell residents and business people will adopt the Western Garb, according to Chairman George Maxwell. This year the women will be urged to wear the long dresses and sunbonnets which were characteristic of the early 1850 period, when Campbell was first emerging as a city.

Ditch cave-in injures worker

Campbell firemen rescued a workman caught in a cave-in of a ten foot storm drain ditch last March 23. The workman, Bernardino D. Alverez, 28, of 139 McReary Ave., San Jose, was working at the base of the ditch located at the corner of Superior Drive and the Colleen tract, when the shorings collapsed.

The victim was covered with earth up to his neck, the Fire Department reported, and suffered an apparent leg and back injury. Firemen assisted the Campbell Ambulance Company in pulling the man loose and administering a leg splint. He was taken to Campbell Community Hospital.

DISTRICT IV

District IV Camp Fire Girls recently presented a lovely Vesper Service in honor of their Birthday Week and the coming Easter.

The flag ceremony was led by Pat Bossard's fifth grade Camp Fire Girl Group, and welcome was extended to the audience by Mrs. Shirley Cole, President of the Campbell Leader's Association. The following Camp Fire Girls lit the Candles of the seven Crafts: Kristi Cook, Diane Battaglia, Tricia Lucier, Nancy Gerlach, Elaine Herrick, Sallie Youmans, and Gina Carroll, followed by the singing of the "Camp Fire Law".

The Blue Bird Wish Candles were then lighted by the following Blue Birds: Cindy Lamar, Sue Ellen Garland, Billie Jean Baker, Dawn Engdahl, Alison Bombino, Sharon Battaglia, and Denise Reynolds. "Sing, Blue Birds, Sing" was then sung by the group.

Kathy Bender of the Horizon Club told of "The Growth of Camp Fire". Participants and the audience then joined in singing of religious songs. The candles were extinguished and the singing of "May The Good Lord Bless and Keep You" marked the closing of this meaningful Vesper Service. Kathy Sullivan of the Junior High School Camp Fire Girls was Narrator and the Chairmen were Mesdames Ann Sullivan and Jo Johns.
